

WFL Endangered Stream Live – Talk Radio for Animal Protection

MEDIA ALERT

April 20, 2009

Mariana Tosca will be a Featured Guest of WFL Endangered Stream Live, Talk Radio for Animal Protection with Host Katia Louise. On behalf of Voice for the Animals Foundation, Mariana will discuss the life of captive elephants in zoos, the risk and health factors involved for the elephants, as well as sensible, compassionate solutions for change during the segment entitled “Concrete Evidence”. The sneak preview will air live on Saturday, May 2nd, 2009 from 3PM -4PM (PST)/ 6PM-7PM (EST) with the Premier release airing on Sunday, May 10th at 4PM PST/7PM EST. The WFL Endangered Stream Live chat room will be open during the live broadcast.

Mariana Tosca serves as Chief Animal Welfare Advisor to Rep. Dennis Kucinich (D-Ohio) and is a lifelong animal & environmental advocate and vegan, who lectures on issues of Animal Protection as well as The Role of the Artist for Social Change Throughout History. She is the International Spokesperson for In Defense of Animals and is a member of the Advisory Board for Born Free USA, Voice for the Animals Foundation and Elephant Voices.

Contact

PR: Kate Dudley: E-Mail

Program Director: Katia Louise: E-Mail

“Concrete Evidence”

Free Billy from the Zoo

###