

WFL Endangered Stream Live – Talk Radio for Animal Protection

May 2, 2009

"Concrete Evidence"

WFL Endangered Stream Live Talk Radio for Animal Protection presents, "Concrete Evidence", in the interest of justice for elephants. This special program brings exposure to the hidden cruelties and business practices behind zoo walls. An expert guest panel including Mariana Tosca, Catherine Doyle, Adam Roberts, David Casselman and Sheryl Greene will spotlight the serious risk/health factors involved for elephants confined to zoos and circuses with a look into wild capture, poaching and habitat destruction. Updates regarding the ongoing law suit against the City of Los Angeles will be discussed along with a focused look at the Billy, their lone remaining elephant.

The Premiere airs on Sunday, May 10th, 2009 from 4PM -6PM (PST)/ 6PM-9PM (EST). The WFL Endangered Stream Live chat room will be open during this presentation.
